Mercedes C63 AMG vs BMW M3: iPE Exhaust Battle at 170 dB [Video]

16/07/2012 17:27 by admin

The naturally-aspirated 6.2-liter V8 engine in the Mercedes C63 AMG already comes with a very strong voice when it leaves the factory, but if you fit it with an aftermarket exhaust, this turns into a pleasure-generation monster. We’ve got the perfect example for that, which comes from iPE Exhausts: a C63 AMG gifted with iPE Evolution Valvetronic Exhaust System. We’re usually advising you to turn up the volume before wa...
