30/05/2011 17:59 by admin

The star of the Mercedes-Benz range, the SLS AMG Coupe, has only a year under its belt but the V8-powered supercar has gained a lot of love from the tuning industry in the past 12 months. The newest performance and styling package for the "Gullwing door" supercar to hit the tuning stage comes from Germany's VÄTH with the introduction of the V63S kit.[...]

Source: Carscoop