

Range Rover Sport Windsor Edition by Amari Design

19/02/2011 05:34 by admin

It wasn't that long ago when Amari Design graced our pages with their tuned-up Lamborghini Gallardo Invidia Edition. Today, one of the largest pre-owned supercar dealers in the UK is getting ready to introduce their latest creation, the 2010 Range Rover Sport Windsor Edition. Loaded with aesthetic and performance upgrades, this Range Rover Sport is certainly not one for the weak-of-heart. Among the aesthetic upgrades you'll find include a new front bumper with DRL lights, wide wheel arches, door moldings, a carbon fiber front grille, carbon side vents, a rear diffuser with a material choice of either ABS plastic or carbon fiber, a new rear bumper, a carbon hood, exhaust tips, with a choice of three different wheel concepts - deep concave, monoblock, and two-piece ? which Amari Design is developing themselves.[...]
