Yesterday, we told you that Mopar, the parts and accessories division of the Chrysler Group, would release four custom vehicles in order to celebrate its 75th anniversary. Now that Chrysler is connected to the Fiat Group, the customization wing's activities can spread further than ever before and Mopar will demonstrate this at this year's Chicago Auto Show, where the four vehicles will be displayed.

We'll skip past the Fiat 500 Singer, the Jeep Compass 'True North' and the Mopar '12 300, to f... [...]
