When we tested the new ML 350 BlueTEC 4MATIC we found a car that looked sporty (for an SUV, of course), but didn't move this way, so a tuning package would be perfect for it.

In fact, this is why we're here, to talk about a modification package for the ML, with the proposal coming from Carlsson. Like we said, once fitted with the AMG exterior pack, the vehicle looks just fine, so we'll ignore the exterior side of the Carlsson kit (actually it's due to the fact that we see it as crossing the o...
