Kicherer Drapes Latest Mercedes-Benz M-Class in a New Sports Suite

18/04/2012 00:13 by admin

If you want your latest-generation Mercedes-Benz ML to stand out on the road, German tuning house Kicherer has announced a new styling package for the luxury SUV that will be available for order this summer. The exterior transformation of the M-Class begins with a wide bodykit that includes a redesigned front bumper complete with LED daytime running lights, wheel arch extensions with matching rocker panels, and a new rear apron with an integrated diffuser and trapezoid shaped exhaust pipes.[...]

Source: Carscoop