We love a good winter camouflage on everything, but it looks especially well with stuff you use during the winter: ski pants, ski helmet... skis. You get that beefy look - like you've been in the Russian Siberian army division and come back alive with souvenirs.

We were naturally excited when we stumbled upon these interesting photos made by Jeremy Cliff on GT Spirit. They show a rear wheel drive (thing about it RWD and winter?) 2004 BMW E46 M4, or what we call a really cool M3.

It belongs... [...]
