

Lexus IS 350C by VIP Auto Salon to Debut 2011 SEMA

27/10/2011 13:49 by admin

Lexus has a total of three very unique models to impress the SEMA crowd this year, and one of them is targeted at convertible fans.

The car you see is based on the IS 350C, but VIP Auto Salon has had its way with it, and now it not only looks like a million dollars but also goes like it was supposed to.

The IS now sits on 19 inch full-face forged alloys wrapped in Michelin Pilot Sport tires. The body of the car has been enhanced by the added carbon fiber aero package that includes Front [...]

Source: autoevolution