

Audi R8 Becomes Toxique Thanks to TC Concepts

14/11/2011 19:32 by admin

We're still dying to see the facelifted Audi R8, which we thought was coming to Frankfurt but now looks like a 2012 reveal. So a fresh take on the almost classic looks of this mid-engined sports car got us all hot and bothered.

We're talking about the R8 Toxique created body kit that was created by TC Concepts. The car has been lowered significantly and sits on massive tires with rubber so thin it looks like a strip of paint.

At the front, the R8 looks to have received a lot of styling elements... [...]
