

Startech Enhances Jaguar XJ

14/12/2011 17:02 by admin

We already know that Startech has a thing for customizing the mighty Jag, but their latest project is something to behold. The German tuner has taken this black luxury saloon to the pinnacle of luxury and class with a whole range of interior and exterior enhancements.

The body of the XJ has been bestowed with a body kit made of OEM plus a set of three-piece forged wheels are measuring 21 inch in size and feature "mirror-polished surfaces and titanium-look sections".

Probably thei... [...]
