

BMW 5-Series Prior Design Exterior Kit

29/12/2011 22:29 by admin

The BMW 5-Series has received a new exterior package, with the development coming from Prior Design. The F10 5er now offers a more dynamic appearance, but without using elements that take things too far.

We'll remind you that Prior Design previewed this kit back in April, but the styling has changed since then. The original images allowed us to see a pack that was inspired from the BMW M3 in terms of styling, but now we have an entirely new design.

The car has been gifted with a front bump... [...]
