The Audi S3 Sportback is already a crazy car when it leaves the factory, being one of the fastest hot hatches on the market, but certain owners just feel the need for some extra madness. So, what happens when an S3 receives some more spice? One answer is provided by the adjacent video, which shows us an example of the car that had received a crazy exterior finish.

The 265 hp machine was dressed in an eye-catching shade of green, with the color being used for the body and calipers. In addition... [...]
