

Arden Announces Jaguar XKR-S Program

02/05/2012 11:02 by admin

German tuner Arden has always created some of the most interesting looking Range Rovers, but now they've targeted something altogether different. The fastest Jaguar of the moment, the much criticized XKR-S, is of course a supercharged car. So getting more power should have been on everyone's mind. However, Arden has been the first to try, and they've pledged to get the 5.0-liter V8 all the way 645 PS. [...]
