

White Porsche 997 Turbo on HRE Wheels

06/06/2012 18:05 by admin

On paper, the Porsche 911 Turbo is just a beefed up version of the original Beetle. A historic relic that wants to be a supercar but is actually constrained by its limitations. However, you don't see many people doing the daily shopping run in a Lamborghini Aventador because it takes 10 minutes to get over a single speed bump and it's as wide as a canal boat. In the real world, German engineering is better than Italian... [...]
