

Porsche Panamera on New ADV.1 Wheels Rendering

28/06/2012 15:58 by admin

Advance One Wheels is an aftermarket developer that can get no rest. When it's not designing a new wheel or fitting a set to a car, the company is playing computer games. These computer games happen to be image manipulation software that allows ADV.1 to virtually adapt a new model of rims to a car. To be more specific, ADV.1 Wheels recently released a rendering that shows a white Porsche Panamera wearing its ADV15 rims. The comp... [...]
