The 997 generation of the Porsche 911 has received another aftermarket gift, with the present this time coming from Advance One Wheels, which has fitted a fine example of the car with a set of its goodies. ADV.1 Wheels played with a tweaked example of the 997.2 Turbo and the company recently released a photo shoot in order to share this with us all. The supercar was gifted with ADV05TSSL rims (TS stands for Trak Spec and SL for Super Ligh... [...])
