

Ford Fiesta by 3D Carbon

13/01/2011 00:47 by admin

The new Ford Fiesta may have just been launched recently, but the little hatchback has still had plenty of time to make quite an impression on the American market. That being said, it's no wonder that The Fiesta was one of the most tuned models at the 2010 SEMA Show. One of the packages offered came in with 3dCarbon, who have designed the perfect car for the sport compact enthusiast.[...]
