

Techart Rolls Out GrandGT Styling Program for Porsche Panamera

26/01/2011 02:51 by admin

Seen for the first time at the Auto Zurich Car Show last December, Techart's GrandGT styling program for the Porsche Panamera is now available for sale. The tuner's box of goodies include a full carbon fiber body kit complemented by beefier alloy wheels, and a variety of cockpit modifications. The exterior styling kit starts off with a new.[...]
