

Audi A1 Blade and Goldie by Aznom

03/02/2011 21:09 by admin

Aznom in cooperation to Audi Lombard Motors has created two special editions Audi A1: one dedicated for men - Blade version and one for women - Goldie version. The two models feature valuable technical materials such as carbon and leather with damask print. The Goldie version is based on the 1.4 TFSI S-Tronic and is characterized by a combination of two color: white body with a matte gold color with purple metallic reflections on the roof, mirrors and the details of the front and rear bumpers. On the interior the seats and the door panels are covered in white leather with a special fabric alternating gold, but what distinguishes Goldie is the calf leather with a special damask print in shades of purple and beige.[...]
