

Ferrari F430 gets Carbon Diffuser from Euro Koncepts

04/02/2011 19:57 by admin

It is true the Ferrari F430 has already been replaced with the 458 Italia, but a good car will always get lots of attention. So, if you happen to have a F430 in your garage, and an extra $3,200 in your pocket Euro Koncepts comes with a tuning proposition for you: a Carbon Diffuser. Why? Because as the tuner says: "We know how important it is not riding stock. We're here to offer aesthetically and performance pleasing parts for many high end rides. Carbon fiber is our thing." [...]
