

Brabus: New Hot Wheels for 2012 Mercedes-Benz CLS Sports Sedan

05/02/2011 04:02 by admin

As sure as the sun rises tomorrow, Brabus will present some horsepower crazy version of the new Mercedes-Benz CLS in the likes of the insane, first-generation CLS-based Rocket V12 that packed 730 twin-turbocharged horses under its bonnet. But for now, the German tuning firm is taking it easy simply releasing its alloy wheel and tire options for[...]
