

Mercedes C63 AMG by Tecnocraft

07/02/2011 20:13 by admin

Tecnocraft has one of the most impressive tuning packages: at the end of 2010 they tuned the Lamborghini Gallardo and a few months earlier the Bentley Continental Supersports. And now is time for the Mercedes C63 AMG. While there are no details on the engine's update, the exterior and the interior changes are impressive. For the exterior Tecnocraft added new front fenders and added a splitter under the custom front bumper. Painted in an impressive gray exterior color, the C63 sits on new ADV.1 Wheels. The interior looks as impressive as the exterior: the seats are entirely made in carbon fiber, and any fabric or leather has been removed.[...]
