

Porsche Panamera Tuneathon Continues with Anderson Germany

08/02/2011 19:43 by admin

Another day, another tuning proposal for Porsche's Panamera sports saloon which is proving to be particularly popular with the aftermarket industry. This one comes from Anderson Germany which has just finished tidying up the details on its latest project based on the non-turbo Panamera 4S. Starting with the engine programme, a software update[...]
