

Hamann's Tuning Program for BMW 5-Series Models fitted with M Sports Package

11/02/2011 17:22 by admin

Buyers looking to tune their cars these days can choose between factory packages and aftermarket kits, and usually it's one or the other. But that's not the case with Hamann Motorsports, which is extending its offerings for the latest generation 5-Series to include an individualization program for those that have opted for BMW's recently launched[...]
