

Project Kahn Presents yet Another Tune for the Range Rover

12/02/2011 18:50 by admin

If you have been following our previous posts on the various Land Rover and Range Rover models tuned by Project Kahn, you may have noticed that they all look eerily similar. And, while there?s nothing wrong with being consistent, we can?t shake the feeling that some different mods would be beneficial. Unfortunately, that doesn't happen with the[...]
