

Vilner Joins Forces with Overdrive to Tune 400HP Mitsubishi Lancer Evo X

22/02/2011 23:57 by admin

After tuning several American and European cars, Vilner has now turned its focus on a Japanese model, the Mitsubishi Lancer EVO X. For this project, the Bulgarian tuning house joined forces with a company called Overdrive, which took over the performance upgrades. As you can see in the two videos after the jump, (the exterior photo was shot.[...])
