

ABT Sportsline Presents its Tune on the 2012 Audi A6 Sedan

16/03/2011 19:17 by admin

ABT Sportsline has released details on its first tuning operation performed on the latest generation Audi A6. The German aftermarket specialist proposes a series of power upgrades and a fairly cosmetic make up with various aero parts and new alloy wheel options. Starting with the diesel tunes, the ABT Power package adds 37 ponies to the[...]
