

Mugen Euro Building High-Performance Version of Honda CR-Z Hybrid

17/03/2011 16:46 by admin

One of the biggest problems most see with Honda's CR-Z hybrid sport hatch is the lack of a performance version. That may change soon enough as Mugen's European division is readying a 'highly-tuned' version of the CR-Z that it claims will deliver 'Type R-like' performance. The faster and more powerful CR-Z Mugen prototype is being developed as[...]
