

Heico Sportiv Redoes the Volvo XC90 SUV, Launches New Styling Package

31/03/2011 17:57 by admin

Seeing that Volvo will be holding on to the XC90, which has been in production since 2002, for a few more years, tuning firm Heico Sportiv decided to update its styling offerings for the crossover model. The newly developed bodykit is made from PUR-R-RIM plastic and consists of six parts. These include new front apron that replaces the[...]
