

Jeep Wrangler Renegade

08/04/2011 22:45 by admin

Every year, Jeep and Mopar hold a special event for fans of the two brands. Now on its 45th year, the Moab Easter Jeep Safari has become an annual convergence of some eye-catching Jeep concepts, all of which have been made specifically for the event. The 45th Moab Easter Jeep Safari is scheduled for April 16th, 2011, but with more than a week left before the event begins, we've already gotten a few sneak peeks on the six concepts that are expected to appear on the show. This year, the event will feature three customized Jeep Wrangler models with one being given the designation as the "Renegade". Just like the Blue Crush and the Pork Chop, the Renegade comes with its own unique features courtesy of Chrysler's aftermarket company, Mopar.[...]

Source: topspeed Tuning