

The Most Affordable Techart Porsche Ever: New Collector's Edition GTStreet Scale Model

02/05/2011 22:00 by admin

When it comes to tuning Porsche models, Techart is one of the most renowned aftermarket specialists in Germany. This time, however, the tuning firm has something far smaller but also, far more affordable in store for us. We are talking about Techart's new Porsche 911 Turbo-based GTStreet collector's edition die cast model. Available only in 1:43 scale, production of the miniature Porsche is limited to just 300 units with pricing set at ?59.90 (including 19% VAT in Germany) or about US$89.[...]
