

Volkswagen Transporter Tuned up by MR Car Design

10/05/2011 20:13 by admin

Just because Volkswagen's Transporter can be used in a professional manner moving goods, people or even both, doesn't mean that tuners aren't paying attention to it. On the contrary, the Transporter has received a lot of tuning love over the many years it has been in production. The tuning proposal for the pre-facelift Transporter you see pictured here comes from German aftermarket specialist, MR Car Design. [...]
