

Hamann BMW 5 Series F11 Released

06/06/2011 16:08 by admin

The BMW 5 Series is still part of the fresh metal category, which means that the tuning market doesn't offer such a wide variety of products for it yet. Every new aftermarket development for the vehicle is welcome and therefore we are happy to present you a new one, coming from Hamann.

The German tuner had already released a modification package for the F10 (sedan) and it was now the F11's (estate) turn to receive some goodies. Unfortunately, we aren't dealing with major enhancements - the ve... [...]
