

Wheelsandmore Audi R8 V10 Spyder Released

06/06/2011 20:11 by admin

Wheelsandmore has released a modification package for the Audi R8 V10... wait, this sounds like 2010! Well, it isn't, because this time, the tuner hasn't targeted the coupe, but the Spyder version of the German supercar.

So, let's start with the wheels. The topless R8 now rides on a set of three-piece 6Sport rims that use Continental tires (245/30 for the front axle and 295/35 for the rear one) and come in a 20-inch size.

In addition to that, the tuner also brought a new finish for the fro... [...]
