

Wheelsandmore Aston Martin Vantage Released

06/06/2011 20:11 by admin

Earlier today, we told you about a new development coming from Wheelsandmore, with the tuning package being destined for the Audi R8 V10 Spyder. Now we are back with a tuning kit coming from the same aftermarket developer. However, this time, the mods target the Aston Martin Vantage.

The Brit is wearing the same rims as the German, which means that we've got the same recipe: a topless creation that rides on 3-piece 6SPorz rims. The wheels come in a 21-inch size and are wrapped in high-perform...[...]
