

DMC Presents the Lamborghini Murcielago GT

06/06/2011 23:13 by admin

Shortly after the German aftermarket specialists at DMC have previewed their Concept Design for the Aventador, a tuning package for the Murcielago LP580 has been revealed by the company. Building on the success of the Limited Edition LP640 QV launched last year, the DMC Lamborghini Murcielago GT comes with modifications that target both styling and performance aspects of the sportscar.

Visually, the new bodykit that comes to dress the vehicle offers a perfect road contact through a greater [...]
