

Vorsteiner Preparing Tuning Kit for BMW 5 Series

07/06/2011 04:17 by admin

We really can't figure out why tuners are still shy when it comes to developing modification packages for the BMW 5 Series F10 and F11 (current generation sedan and estate). Anyway, the latest kit of this kind comes from Vorsteiner.

Actually, the tuner doesn't offer the package yet, as it has only released a pair of renderings that offer us a preview of the good things to come. The details are limited, so we can only rely on the images to see what the 5 Series will be gifted with.[...]
