

Dacia Duster Tuned by Eibach and Giacuzzo Design

07/06/2011 11:23 by admin

The Dacia Duster has made the news around the world with its attractive price tag. Now the Romanian-built crossover has been tuned by the German specialists at Eibach and Giacuzzo Design, who teamed up to create a package that promises to draw everyone's attention.

The two companies opted for light modifications in order to stick to the basic shape of the Romanian crossover and to make sure the price of the tuning package would remain affordable for the car's target group, which is key for [...]

Source: autoevolution