

Lamborghini Gallardo LP560 GT3 "Generazioni" by DMC

German tuner, DMC, doesn't get nearly the same amount of credit as its German contemporaries in the tuning world, partly because these guys have been under-the-radar compared to their brethren. All that, however, is about to change with the launch of a pair of limited edition Lamborghini Gallardo GT3s. The two versions, an LP540 and an LP560, were each given their own aerodynamic and performance upgrades as a tribute to Fabio Babini and Matteo Zucchi's win at the recently concluded Blancpain Super Trofeo in Silverstone just a few days ago on June 5, 2011.
