

Wetterauer Tunes MINI Countryman Cooper S

19/06/2011 01:46 by admin

There's something for everybody in the tuning world - from light touches like adding new wheels to completely changing everything about a car. German tuners are usually somewhere in the middle, providing extensive mods that leave the soul of the car unharmed but forever changed.

Koblenz-based Wetterauer Engineering has been tweaking MINI's Countryman model in an ongoing project. Despite looking like a brown piece of chocolate, the biggest of the British carmaker's vehicles is now even more [...]

Source: autoevolution