

Hofele Design Unveils VW Touareg Royal GT 470

20/06/2011 21:10 by admin

Specialist tuning company Hofele Design has just unveiled an extensive program for the second-generation Touareg, including radical cosmetic changes and performance mods.

On the outside of the new Touareg, an aero body kit has been created and fitted. At the front, it includes a front apron with integrated LEDs on both corners. The changes to the grille and hood make the SUV almost unrecognizable, while also providing a muscular, sporty look. Both sets of wheelarches have been extended and ma... (read more)
