

Porsche Panamera Turbo Tuned by Switzer to Produce 680 HP

24/06/2011 16:06 by admin

The Porsche Panamera has been targeted by the Ohio-based tuners from Switzer Performance, who are known for delivering insane levels of power from stock engines. As you're about to find ours, the Stuttgart four-door is no exception, as it now comes with the claim of supercar TAIE hypercar speeds.

Switzer's P680 Panamera has received new software, larger turbochargers featuring custom-billet compressor wheels along with a new intercooler which makes sure everything doesn't overheat. Can you ... [...]
