

Anderson Germany Creates Ferrari Scuderia Spider 16M Conversion Edition

28/06/2011 18:03 by admin

Every once in a while, the tuning specialists at the Dusseldorf-based company Anderson Germany manage to enter our attention with some project that is worth presenting. So is the case with their latest creation, which is based on the Ferrari 430 Spider, a model introduced by the Italian manufacturer starting in 2004 and replaced by the 458 Italia in mid-2009.

Dubbed Scuderia Spider 16M Conversion Edition, the car you can see in the adjacent images went through an extensive aftermarket [...]
