

MUGEN Tweaks the New Honda Fit Shuttle

07/07/2011 17:07 by admin

We knew the specialists at MUGEN are playing with the idea of creating a sportier Jazz (the European version of the Fit), so the following piece of news comes as no surprise to us. Honda's new mini MPV, launched late last week in Japan and going by the name of Fit Shuttle, has grabbed MUGEN's attention and the result is what you can see in the adjacent images.

As usual, Honda's Japanese in-house tuner decided to take the matter into its own hands and give the vehicle sportier looks and [...]
