

Lumma Design Tweaks the BMW X6 xDrive40d

11/07/2011 13:29 by admin

The aftermarket specialists at Lumma Design have just introduced their latest project, which is again based on the BMW X6, only this time focusing on the xDrive40d model. The aim was to take the crossover and modify it so that it looks and drives like a car does. This means that aside from the visual changes, the tuners have also performed various performance mods.

When it leaves the factory, the 2011 BMW X6 xDrive40d is fitted with a twin-turbocharged 3.0-liter inline-six-cylinder engine [...]
