

Project Kahn Audi Q7 in Black and White Is Here

14/07/2011 02:57 by admin

While the brand with four rings is working on making a special edition Q7 which will be produced in limited run of just 555 models, Audi's SUV is targeted by aftermarket specialists who want to give it a special touch of their own.

So is the case with the tuners at Kahn Design, the same who have given us the Audi TR8, TT GT Coupe and the Project Kahn Audi Q5.

Now they have taken 'the biggest Q' and tweaked it pretty much everywhere, but leaving what's under the bonnet untouched. This...[...]
