

ABT Sportsline has 2012 VW Tiguan SUV on its Sights

28/07/2011 18:08 by admin

The recently refreshed for the 2012 model year Volkswagen Tiguan is next up on ABT Sportline's tuning menu. While still on the works, the German tuning house released the first renderings and information on the upgrades that will be available for VW's compact model. Beginning with the performance modifications, ABT Sportline will offer a variety of power kits for the entire range of the European model's engines.[...]
