

Imperium Builds One-off Bentley Continental GT for Rich UK Client

03/08/2011 10:36 by admin

Why settle with a 'simple' luxury vehicle, when you have the money to ask for a unique, bespoke, expensive ride? That was probably what the wealthy British entrepreneur who commissioned the package you see in the adjacent images was thinking when he went to the aftermarket specialists at Imperium.

While the tuners kept the buyer's identity a secret, they did take the time to offer some details on the project, which comes in the form of a one-off enhancement kit for the Bentley Continent...[...]

Source: autoevolution