As the new Fiat 500 starts storming the US dealerships and the hotter Abarth 500 readies for its North American debut, the Colorado-based specialists at Scagliarini Motorsports have been commissioned building a special edition 500 dreamed up by famous design firm Zagato.

Dubbed 504cze (short for Coupe Zagato Elaborata), the car is based on the Abarth 500, with the '4' standing for the number of driven wheels. The transmission comes, in fact, from a Fiat panda 4x4, which includes a locki... [...]
