

Project Kahn 2012 Vesuvius Edition Sport 300 Launched

06/09/2011 15:05 by admin

The Brits at Project Kahn have just hit us with their latest development. Yes, we are talking about a Range Rover Sport, which has received serious exterior, interior and technical modifications.

Dubbed 2012 Vesuvius edition Sport 300, the vehicle impressed through a two tone orange-black exterior coat. The vehicle features exterior goodies such as black rubber sidesteps with orange edges, a modified front bumper, as well as orange front grille inserts. The SUV now rides on RS alloy rims [...]
